

The Twentieth Annual Claremont Symposium on Applied Social Psychology

---

The Social Psychology Faculty of The Claremont Colleges invite you, your students, and your colleagues to a conference on "Applications of Nonverbal Communication". It will be held on Saturday, March 8, 2003, in the Mary Pickford Auditorium, Bauer Center at Claremont McKenna College. Outstanding psychologists from many areas of the country who are internationally known authorities on applications of nonverbal communication will present their research and summarize current knowledge on this vital social issue.

Audience discussion with the speakers will be encouraged during coffee breaks, lunch, and a wine and cheese reception. We request that you register and make lunch reservations in advance. Please return the attached form by February 21 to reserve places. For additional information, call the CGU Psychology Department at (909) 621-8084.

---

Applications of Nonverbal Communication

Organizers: Ronald E. Riggio, Claremont McKenna College and Robert S. Feldman, University of Massachusetts

- 8:30 Registration
- 9:00 Welcome
- 9:05 Leslie R. Martin, La Sierra University, and Howard S. Friedman, UC Riverside
"Nonverbal Communication and Health Care"
- 9:35 Pierre Philippot, University of Louvain, Belgium
"Facial Expression Decoding Biases in Clinical Populations with Interpersonal Relationship Dysfunctions"
- 10:05 Peter Blanck and Mollie Mart, University of Iowa
"The Law and Nonverbal Communication"
- 10:35 Coffee break
- 10:50 Aldert Vrij, University of Portsmouth, UK
"Nonverbal Behavior in Police Interviews"
- 11:20 Maureen O'Sullivan, University of San Francisco
"Why Some People Can Detect Deception, but Most Can't"
- 11:50 Al Goethals, Williams College
"Nonverbal Behavior and Political Leadership: It's Beyond Words"
- 12:20 Luncheon (included in conference fee; reservations required)
- 2:00 Monica Harris, University of Kentucky, and Robert Rosenthal, UC Riverside
"No More Teacher's Dirty Looks: Effects of Teacher Nonverbal Behavior on Student Outcomes"
- 2:30 Pat Noller and Judy Feeney, University of Queensland, Australia
"Nonverbal Behavior in Marriage and Relationships"
- 3:00 Coffee break
- 3:15 Marianne LaFrance, Yale University and Julie Woodzicka, Washington & Lee University
"I Think She Likes Me; Smiling, Power, and the Likelihood of Sexual Harassment"
- 3:45 David Matsumoto, San Francisco State University
"Cross-Cultural Issues in Nonverbal Communication"
- 4:15 Closing Remarks
- 4:30 Wine and cheese reception

---

The Twentieth Annual Claremont Symposium on "Applications of Nonverbal Communication" March 8, 2003

To pre-register for the conference (including lunch), please send this form and a check for $40 (students $20) by February 21, payable to Claremont Graduate University, to:

Applied Social Psychology Symposium
Claremont Graduate University
123 E. Eighth Street
Claremont, CA 91711-3955

Please register the following persons. Enclosed is $40 per person ($20 for students).

1) Name _____

Address _____

Affiliation _____

2) Name _____

Address _____

Affiliation _____