The goal of the One-Stop service delivery system is to make a comprehensive range of employment, training, and related services accessible in one location. The Workforce Investment Act (WIA) requires the participation of relevant programs administered by the Department of Labor and by the Departments of Agriculture, Education, Health and Human Services, and Housing and Urban Development. The law specifies required and optional partners that must coordinate their programs and services through One-Stop Centers.

Required partners are:
- Programs authorized under Title I of WIA serving adults, dislocated workers, youth, and veterans, as well as Job Corps, Native American programs, and migrant and seasonal farmworker programs
- Programs authorized under the Wagner-Peyser Act
- Adult education and literacy activities authorized under Title II of WIA
- Programs authorized under parts A and B of Title I of the Rehabilitation Act
- Welfare-to-Work programs authorized under the Social Security Act
- Senior community service employment activities authorized under Title V of the Older Americans Act of 1965
- Postsecondary vocational education authorized under the Carl D. Perkins Vocational and Applied Technological Education Act
- Trade Adjustment Assistance and NAFTA Transitional Adjustment Assistance authorized under the Trade Act of 1974
- Local veterans’ employment representatives and disabled veterans outreach programs
- Employment and training activities under the Community Services Block Grant
- Employment and training activities of the Department of Housing and Urban Development
- Programs authorized under State unemployment compensation laws

Optional partners may include:
- Temporary Assistance to Needy Families authorized under the Social Security Act
- Employment and training programs authorized under the Food Stamp Act of 1977
- Work programs authorized under the Food Stamp Act of 1977
- Programs authorized under the National and Community Service Act of 1990
- Other appropriate Federal, State, or local programs
